

Follow your heart

Champagne & Chocolate

Hershey's Kisses brand Champagne-flavored Truffles housed in a package shaped like a bottle of bubbly. Indulgent, clever and available where Hershey's products are sold for about $13.

Music for the Heart

Wine and dine your loved one at a favorite local restaurant and then treat him or her to a night of Motown favorites featuring Spectrum and the Wheeling Symphony Orchestra on Thursday, Feb. 14 at WesBanco Arena. The symphony offered a dinner package at the arena, but it is sold out. For concert ticket information, visit www.wheelingsymphony.org or call the WesBanco Arena box office at 304-233-4470.

VALENTINE TIPS TO STAY HAPPILY MARRIED, OFFERED BY RELATIONSHIP PROFESSIONALS:

- "Show your partner why you are choosing them over everyone else."
- "Present them with an IOU offering them a special service they'll love."
- "Start a new tradition by writing a gratitude journal together."
- "Make a special connection through spending quality time together."

Books With Heart

Show your love for a child with a gift of books. Grandparents, parents, teachers and children can browse for books at the Scholastic Book Fair at Ohio University Eastern Campus' art gallery in St. Clairsville Monday, Feb. 11 through Wednesday, Feb. 13. If books warm your child's heart, you don't want to miss the fair, with more than 400 book titles available. Hours are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday and Wednesday; 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesday.

That's Amore

DeFelice Brothers Pizza is offering heart-shaped pizzas at all its locations Wednesday through Friday, Feb. 13-15, with proceeds benefiting the American Heart Association.

Ear Bud Bling

Your Valentine can listen to her favorite tunes in style with these sparkling buds adorned with genuine Swarovski crystals. Shuga Buds also available in pink, yellow, green, blue, rainbow and amethyst. $45 at www.GilstenWear.com and www.healthykidatheart.com

Picture This

Here's a simple and sentimental gift: Present your Valentine with a heart-shaped picture frame with a photo of you or the two of you. It's a gift they'll treasure for years to come.

"Tuck away thoughtful notes where you know your partner will see them."

"Make your relationship better by openly listening to your partner."

"Do something you used to do as a couple when you first met."

"Give a gift that speaks your spouse's love language."

"Create a book for your partner highlighting special moments you've shared."

List compiled by Lee Rosen, president of Rosen Law Firm and founder of the Stay Happily Married Web site, www.stayhappilymarried.com

Red, Brighton, You!

(top of the page) Buy a Brighton Go Red for Women bracelet at participating retailers through Feb. 15, and $5 will be donated to the American Heart Association to help fight heart disease in women. Available locally at Nini's Treasures in Wheeling.

Scent by Cupid

According to aromatherapy specialist Tom Havran, a good candidate for the "ultimate love oil" is vanilla essential oil — especially in combination with cocoa butter. "The vanilla and cocoa combination has a tradition as an irresistibly arousing scent that goes back at least to the Aztecs. And, it has a strong appeal for both men and women," said Havran, of the aromatherapy company Aura Cacia. Try cocoa butter cream with vanilla, $9.99 for 4-ounce jar at www.auracacia.com.

