

Magazine Name

February 2012

Drug-free remedies for sinus infections * Get beautiful with wine, chocolate & roses

Natural Health

feel good » look good » do good

14
soups that heal p. 70

Max your motivation

What really works for lasting change p. 62

USE YOUR HEAD TO PROTECT YOUR HEART

Simple ways to stop the #1 killer p. 76

SEAFOOD RULES

The best fish for you
& the planet p. 50

The DETOX SECRET
no one talks about
p. 32

Yoga for energy

7 moves for an instant boost p. 46

FEBRUARY 2012

DISPLAY UNTIL FEB. 13, 2012

USA $4.99 CANADA $6.99

Angela Lindvall Project Runway's new host is an eco all-star p. 34

7 ♥ Apply Aura Cacia Organic Rosehip Oil ($13; auracacia.com) after cleansing your face or body to repair sun-damaged skin.

8 ♥ Thymes Kimono Rose Bar Soap ($13; thymes.com) is a triple-milled vegetable soap enhanced with rose extract, which leaves behind a delicate scent.

9 ♥ Miracle Skin Transformer Treat & Conceal ($36; miracleskintransformer.com) evens out skin tone, minimizes flaws and protects the delicate under-eye area with free radical-fighting white rose and chamomile extracts.

10 ♥ Weleda Wild Rose Creamy Body Wash ($17; weleda.com) is crafted from hand-picked roses; the cream absorbs quickly and leaves skin silky.

11 ♥ KORRES Lip Butter in Wild Rose ($12; sephora.com) soothes and moisturizes dry, chapped lips while delivering a deliciously decadent shine.

12 ♥ Jurlique Rose Body Cream ($35; jurlique.com) contains botanicals and antioxidants for long-lasting hydration, even on elbows and knees.

